

The Electrical GPM

This Bank occurs at several dates after (closer to PT) than the R6 bank and is the next bank after R6.

It is an oddity as it has an electrical shock as its end word rather than a word. This was to convince a Chetan he should think of himself as an electrical being.

It is a repeating line Pkt, each one the same, and had 5 runs per implant.

The earliest is about to 210,000,866th. It occurs again at various later dates, leapfrogging other types of GPMs.
